When Someone You

Memory,

Their Memory
Becomes a Treasure

With Guidance

Choosing cremation rather than burial does not diminish the value of the wonderful life that you have loved and lost. Cremation, like burial...is simply the final destination of the physical body of the deceased. The remembrance of the heart, spirit and soul of your loved one is a treasure which only you and your family can truly know and honor. Our goal is to help you find joy in the way you choose to celebrate and cherish their memory.

CremationWithCare Advisors are trained professionals who listen, offer guidance & advice and support bereaved families. They believe that they have a unique responsibility to honor the dignity of the deceased, to aid and counsel the family in time of grief, and to encourage remembrance with each family within its own traditions, culture and financial means. They understand that the ritual of ceremony is one that plays a significant role in our lives and that meaningful Remembrance Gatherings do not just occur. They are events that require guidance and thoughtful planning. CremationWithCare Advisors are attentive to every detail and help promote healing and peace of mind.

Remembrances to Remember Forever

There are many inspirational options for the final disposition of the cremated remains. A cremation urn serves as an enduring symbol of a wonderful life. The memory of your loved one lives on in your heart and mind and a cremation urn should symbolize the treasure that those memories represent. Cremation urns capture a person's individuality and personality while honoring a life that has been loved and lost. CremationWithCare preferred providers offer urns that represent many different themes and hobbies, as well as works of art that will be displayed and enjoyed for generations.

Personalization is available on most urns which can be simple in design, themed, or artistically created in a wide range of materials, shapes and colors. Included are eco-friendly, biodegradable urns and a unique selection of cremation jewelry and cremation keepsakes so you can keep their memory close. Whether you are looking to pre-purchase your own cremation urn or are looking for something to honor the life of a loved one, we have a diverse selection to help you capture the inspiration of a lifetime.
